FROM: Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT: Unauthorized Disclosure Analysis Center

25X1

1. In order to focus efforts to combat unauthorized disclosures of classified intelligence information, I recently expanded the mission of the Unauthorized Disclosure Analysis Center (UDAC), relocated it from Rosslyn to Room 1A34 Headquarters, and authorized additional staffing. In its expanded role, the UDAC will serve as the Intelligence Community focal point to receive and synthesize information on intelligence disclosures, conduct liaison in pursuit of a cohesive and vigorous approach to investigating unauthorized disclosures, develop material to raise awareness of the pernicious effect of unauthorized disclosures on the national security, and support DCI and Intelligence Community efforts to ensure that unauthorized disclosures are resolved to the extent possible.

2. The UDAC will continue development of its register of unauthorized intelligence disclosures, preparation of reports on the numbers and nature of unauthorized disclosures of intelligence, review of selected publications and liaison with the Community on apparent disclosures of intelligence, preparation of recommendations for DCI/DDCI action regarding specific disclosures, and formulation of proposals to stimulate action to counter unauthorized disclosures. In addition, the UDAC will advise the DCI of intelligence disclosure investigations in progress in the Community, advise Community agencies of apparent intelligence disclosures in their areas of interest and/or expertise, and support interagency coordination efforts by senior officials.
